

The High Kings return to Galway

Following their very successful US tour, Irish ballad group sensation 'The High Kings' are returning home to play an Irish tour in October and November.

Carrying on the tradition of Irish music, The High Kings' first Irish tour was greeted by sell out audiences and standing ovations.

As they complete their autumn US tour they are preparing to return home for Irish tour dates.

They will play The Black Box on Tuesday 4 November at 8pm. Tickets, €27.50, are available from 091-569777.
