

Publication: Munster Express
Date: Friday, October 17, 2008
Page: M 2
Extract: 1 of 1
Circulation: 10.857
Author:
Headline: The High Kings are heading home

The High Kings are heading home

Following their very successful US tour the Irish ballad group sensation The High Kings have returned home to play an Irish tour through October and November.

Finbarr Clancy, Brian Dunphy, Martin Furey & Darren Holden with Music Producer David Downes are carrying on the tradition of great Irish music, The High Kings' first Irish tour was greeted by sell out audiences and standing ovations.

The Irish tour which commences in October on Friday 17th, will include dates in Dublin, Donegal, Cavan, Portlaoise, Kilkenny, Roscrea, Mullingar, Sligo, Athlone, Dundalk, Portlaoise, Castlebar, Cork, Waterford, Limerick, Clifden, Belfast and Roscommon.

Dates in this area include Friday October 24th at Hotel Kilkenny, Kilkenny; Sunday November 2nd at Riverside Hotel, Ennis-corthy; Monday November 10th at Lawlor's Hotel, Dungarvan, Waterford.

